

WHAT IS HIGHPOINT?

HCSA Highpoint Halfway House started in 1996 as a shelter for drug addicts, and now provides a safe and drug-free temporary residence to help homeless male ex-offenders and those recovering from addictions.

Today, our transitional residence focuses on offering homeless and newly-released prisoners of all races and religions, a safe place to restart their lives and reintegrate into society.

Our residents are empowered to attain permanent housing, gainful employment, and financial independence, in order to live a productive life that is free from addiction.
